

impossibility. Already fellow travelers have nearly got it across that the only real opponents of Franco are communists. That is why they were so enraged at the provisional Republican regime in Mexico City. Unfortunately, many Catholics have unconsciously played the communist game by agreeing that Franco's only enemies are communists. The old game, played so well by Goebels in the days of Hitler, and by Stalin more than once, is to make the American people believe that only communists can take his place.

If we back Negrin to succeed Franco, we will do only what we did in Jugoslavia. Put a Tito in Spain, and we may as well call in the Red Army and its political police. There is a terrible danger that we will do just that. We have seen it happen in Poland, Bulgaria, and Rumania. We betrayed democratic elements in each of those countries, not because we wanted communism but because we were too stupid to recognize the friends we had there, or too cowardly to support them. As a recent writer said in the New Leader:

"The race is on. Will the democracies wake up before Russia has had time to groom Negrin, del Vayo and the communists for a possible 'new Spanish government-in-exile' to be sold to England and the U. S. as the only 'true representative of the heroic Spanish people'? Will the pattern established in Poland be repeated?"

to see it that the Figueroas threw open the doors to all comers.

But all eyes turn from other sights back to the heart of the bewitching loveliness of Taxco, back to Santa Prisca. The church lavishly sheds its beauty and benediction, its subtle and mystical enchantment, on all who come. And I thought, "this is so because it was built as a gift to God and because God must bless such a prayer of gratitude expressed in carved stone."
